Gideon van Oudtshoorn : From South to North: Solo into the unknown before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised From South to North: Solo into the unknown:

Gideon van Oudtshoorn takes you on an epic motorcycle adventure from Argentina to Alaska. A 38 000km ride through thirteen countries and the length of a continent. From deserted Chilean landscapes and mudflats to jungles and snow-capped mountain Canadian mountain ranges. At first glance it resembles a detailed travelogue, but surprisingly it unfolds into the very unexpected. Stumbling blocks like adverse weather in Patagonia, six hour border crossings in Nicaragua, foreign police in the U.S.A. and run-ins with drugs in Bolivia are dealt with in strange, but very interesting ways. An uncomplicated and painfully honest story that will appeal to both the well-travelled and opposite alike. A truly fascinating read!

About the Author Gideon van Oudtshoorn is from Randburg in Johannesburg. He matriculated at Randburg High and went on to study a degree in Transport Economics at University of Johannesburg. He was a professional 800m athlete 1997-2002 and qualified for the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney. After injuries ended his running career in 2002 he embarked on a solo motorbike journey from the southernmost point of Argentina to Alaska. He is the author of a book called From South to North, a biography of his adventures on this journey.
