When I get tired of reading or TV, I take a Taschen trip and love it3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Really pleasantly surprised!By GoodTimberLaneI got this book not really realising how big it is. It has some very beautiful photo's of some places to go in Africa along with an idea of the cost, what that price includes, web site links for the resorts featured a book that you might enjoy while on your adventure. There are some very stunning scenes that will spark your imagination if your thinking of decorating in an African or Safari theme. A few of the Resorts are in here that were featured in

"Safari Chic" "Simply Safari". It is a beautiful coffee table book it's something you could enjoy looking through it time again. If I had the option to travel to Africa ... this book would definitely give me some very informative useful information to plan a memorable vacation.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Stunning Guide To Places Unknown!By EveThis is a beautiful book, full of amazing photos of hotels throughout Africa. Even if you don't plan a trip to this continent, the pictures alone will make you wish you did. A stunning guide to places unknown!

This collection featuring some of the most splendid getaway havens nestled throughout Africa is sure to please even the most finicky would-be voyagers. Includes hotel pricing, contact information, interior and exterior photographs, and more.

About the AuthorThe editor: Angelika Taschen studied art history and German literature in Heidelberg, gaining her doctorate in 1986. She has worked for TASCHEN since 1987, publishing numerous titles on architecture, photography, design and contemporary art. She conceived TASCHEN's Interiors series in 1994 and the Country Houses series in 1999. The author: Shelley-Maree Cassidy is a writer and marketing specialist who has written two books on hotels around the world and has contributed travel articles to magazines and journals. Her particular interest in hotels stems from her family background, as her great-grandparents owned several of the first hotels in New Zealand, where she lives.
