book, we refer to this book when we travel through AZ

Witnesses at these sites swear that the spirits of those who lived in Arizona's wild past are still among us. From ruthless outlaws to priests and Victorian ladies, these stories will amaze you!

Ellen Robson has taken us on another ghostly journey, to the cities and towns of Arizona, and there's plenty here for the True Believers. Whooooo knows what lurks in the halls of those old hotels when the clock strikes midnight? -- Marshall Trimble, Arizona's Official State Historian
Between these covers is a most informative collection of haunted Arizona locations that provides intrepid tourists with a roadmap to the macabre. It's packed with vivid and strange tales, opening the door of the supernatural to the ordinary traveler. --James Prueter, Vice President AAA Arizona
A delightful collection of ghost stories throughout the state of Arizona. Vividly told with interviews by those who actually encountered these specters. Truly a good read that should not be missed. --Dale Kaczmarek, President, Ghost Research Society
About the Author
Ellen Robson was raised in Springfield, IL and has lived in the Phoenix area since 1969. She now lives in Tempe with her husband John and spends much of her time with their children and grand children. Ellen also coauthored Haunted Highway: The Spirits of Route 66. When she isn't writing books about haunted sites, she freelances for various publications including Women's World and Arizona Senior World. Ellen invites you to share any other ghost sites that you know of in Arizona that you would like to see in future books. You can visit her website at spirits66 dot com
