Myrna K. Phelps : Roads are for Traveling before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Roads are for Traveling:

Join Myrna, husband Douglas, and rascally dog Chantal as they travel around Europe in this wonderful collection of stories and journals. In the company of her informed and appreciative eye, the reader will come to know many famous European cities, including Augsburg, Venice, Florence, Budapest, Toledo, Madrid, and Amsterdam as never before. Whether braving the riotous German drunks, being persecuted by incompetent Dutch train conductors, smuggling Chantal across borders in a handbag, window-shopping in the red light district of Amsterdam, or finding somewhere for Douglas to satisfy his appetite, Myrna takes in the sights, dissects the culture and illuminates each place and person with her hilariously caustic observations.

About the Author Myrna K. Phelps, nee Kornet, was born in the former Dutch East Indies and moved to Holland shortly after WWII. After serving as an airline hostess for KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, she moved to the United States where she continued her studies, obtaining an MA in French while raising three sons. Married and divorced twice, she now divides her time between California, Kentucky and Romania.
