We made this trip and found this book to be invaluable and accurate!By MimiIf you plan to visit these parks, whether or not you are traveling via RV or with children, BUY THIS BOOK! We made this trip and found this book to be invaluable and as accurate as you could ever hope a travel guide book to be. I rarely take the time to review my purchases but this time credit must be given where credit is due. I researched many books and purchased three for this particular trip. I chose this book because we, also were traveling in our motorhome and with our middle school age son to the Grand Canyon and surrounding National Parks AND because our traveling style and interests (ie hiking) were very similar to the author's. We completed this trip last summer (2015) and can say that this is the ABSOLUTE BEST travel guide book out there for anyone planning a trip to these parks (whether or not you are traveling in an RV and whether or not you are traveling with children)! We own our motorhome so we didnt need the chapter on "using the RV" but it is spot on and I imagine veryful to someone who is just renting the RV. We found the information regarding the hikes and details regarding camping in and getting around the National Parks extremely helpful and accurate and BETTER than any info we found on the National Park websites. The only time I ever doubted the author's impartiality was regarding Ruby's Inn (they seem to own everything going on outside of Bryce and we were not impressed with them at all). All in all, I am very grateful to Mr. Henze for writing this book. It made all the difference in our trip!! I can say that with absolute certainty because this summer's our trip was to Rocky Mnt NP through Yellowstone etc up to Banff and concluding at Badlands and it was so much harder and time consuming to plan without a book like RVing with Monsters. Plus I feel like we missed so much. Mr. Henze, I wish you would write a book like this for all of our national parks! I would buy every one and gladly pay three times as much as I did for this one! Bravo! and MANY MANY THANKS!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Only guide you will need!By C McGThis was the only travel guide we bought for our trip. Its a great read. I read it, then re read it, as did my husband. Then it went with us on our RV trip, and provided fantastic and reliable advice for our family on our RV trip. This trip could have been completely overwhelming to plan, but the author packs the information you need into an enjoyable book to read. We toured the grand circle, renting an RV for the first time with our children, 13 and 11 years old. His advice was spot on.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. More than just a travel guideBy Mike WalkerGood tips and an interesting narrative to boot

"Dad I love you.. can I have the iPad?" - Rving with Monsters is laugh out loud funny, containing stories of the author's family as they travel through seven of the greatest national parks in the Southwest. The stories complement a rich and wonderfully detailed travel guide through Zion, Bryce, Capitol Reef, Canyonlands, Arches, Mesa Verde and Grand Canyon National Parks. The author shows how to accomplish this vacation of a lifetime in as little as two weeks. RVing with Monsters covers lodging, history, geology and things to do and contains over 150 photos. The book is fun and informative. This is the way a travel guide should be!
