A good read 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. review of sacred earth By Don Knebel I have always been interested in the sacred powers in places all over this earth. This book will give you a glimpse into that world. It gathers in your spirit and brings your mind into focus on so many deeply spiritual moving places. I bought it because of my unquenchable nature to learn about these places. The photography is truly a visual feast for the eye. Its stories will deeply affect your spirit. I heartily recommend this book of world treasures. Don Knebel 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Sacred Earth: Places of Peace and Power By Karen V Reider Wow. Spellbinding, magnificent, beautiful. Let this pilgrim take you on a journey you'll never forget. There are places in this book I didn't even know existed. Now I feel like I've been there. Martin Gray is not only an impeccable photographer, he is a brilliant and gifted writer. I highly recommend it. I've also given it as a gift and several friends have commented on how they treasure it.

The largest and most beautiful collection of sacred sites ever photographed! Acclaimed photographer and anthropologist Martin Gray spent the last 20 years on an amazing pilgrimage, visiting 1,000 sacred sites in 80 countries. His journey unfolds in remarkable images that reveal how devoutly cultures everywhere worship our Earth.

From Tibets Potala Palace to Hawaiiis Mauna Kea, these are the awe-inspiring places from which all the worlds great religions sprang.
