I'm considering photocopying the pages I need and then tossing the book. I don't want it in the house or on the bookshelf. Yuck!6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Presents

approximately 350 sites throughout Minnesota
By Midwest Book Review
The collaboration of John-Brian Paprock and Teresa Peneguy Paprock, Sacred Sites Of Minnesota impressively presents approximately 350 sites throughout Minnesota that have a spiritual or sacred connotation, including retreat centers, churches, temples, cemeteries, effigy mounds, and more. Black-and-white photographs, capsule histories, descriptions, directions, contact information and more fill the pages of this unique travel guide which is very highly recommended -- especially for vacationers or native residents looking for a truly memorable excursion into the metaphysical resources of this Midwestern state.

For the traveler seeking to find the spirit--however he or she chooses to define that term--Minnesota is blessed with a large number of sacred sites, many of which are unique. This book profiles approximately 350 sites, including retreat centers, churches, temples, cemeteries, and effigy mounds. Learn about each site's history, uniqueness, aesthetic beauty, and awe. Specific location and contact information is also included.

It is wonderful to have this book that emphasizes preservation and respectful conduct of sacred places. -- Leonard and Nancy Becker, Co-Founders, Sacred Sites International Foundation
We are reminded that the sacred knows no boundaries, be it garden, church, temple or tree. -- Tim Miejan, managing editor, The Edge newspaper
