Nancy Haston Foster : San Antonio (Lone Star Guide to San Antonio) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised San Antonio (Lone Star Guide to San Antonio):

This easy-to-use guide gives you the history, highlights, and hot spots of the nation's eighth largest city. You get extensive listings of historical places, annual events, restaurants, accomodations, shopping areas, and more.

From Library Journal Covering interesting San Antonio, the Texas Monthly Press maintains the high quality of its other guides by providing an overview of the history, points of interest, and day-to-day services offered in this distinctive city. The city's rich and varied cultural history is highlighted with detailed background on the many Spanish missions (yes, there is more here than the Alamo!). Novices to Mexican cuisine will be relieved to find a glossary of the "Top Forty" Spanish words typically found on a menu. Recommended for any travel collection. Olga B.
