Eric C. Pahlke : San Diego County Victorians before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised San Diego County Victorians:

The author spent a lot of time capturing clear/high res pictures of these San Diego gems, along w/interesting historical information. I've had three friends in the last week spot the book on my coffee table and couldn't resist to pick it up and thumb through. Addresses are listed too...so if you live here or are just visiting, pick up the book and spend a 1/2 day seeing a part of San Diego history many of us miss. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. An Outstanding Book! By Shirley Perszyk This is a delightful book for anyone interested in Victorian homes in San Diego. Not only are there wonderful photographs of these homes, but the author also provides the reader with some interesting historical facts about San Diego and examples of the various styles of Victorian homes. I especially enjoyed the paragraphs that provided insight into the lives of the owners of the Victorian homes. It makes a lovely coffee table book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Got it right! By Richard Chavez This book gets it right! It has the right amount of informative text and beautifully detailed pictures to go along. The photos and maps are stunning. If you are interested in Victorian homes, architecture, or this fascinating historical time, this would be an excellent book to own. I highly recommend it.

The first book to cover Victorian-style homes throughout the entire county. A photographic overview of great variety, the author has included all style types, from architect-designed to beach houses, summer cottages, and farmhouses, from the affluent to the working class home.

About the Author Eric Pahlke lives in San Diego with his wife, Barbara. Although his formal education was in civil engineering and public management, Pahlke has enjoyed photography from an early age. His interest in Victorian houses dates back to the early 70s, when he took note of the large Victorian houses in the neighborhoods around downtown San Diego.
