By Jon L Albee This is a nice, heavy plastic map printed in vivid color this is a lovely riding companion. I can't say that I've done all the rides, but I live in Houston and the rides it suggests for the Houston area are popular routes for motorcyclists. The authors have done their homework. This is a nice, durable folding map that fits easily in a backpack, saddle bag, on under your seat. You may even be able to stuff it into your riding jacket. It includes popular and interesting stops along each route that are worth your time. If I lived in another part of the United States, I would buy this map for the area.

fantastic driving routes. Very clearly explained. - By Jacobus Krielen --http://www.com/review/R1ZMERA9MJBS8Z/ref=cm_cr_dp_title?ie=UTF8ASIN=1933911360channel=detail-glancenodeID=283155store=booksAbout the Author Jenny Lefferts, the entrepreneurial force behind MAD Maps, learned her love of scenic road travel from her father, whose idea of a summer vacation was a family road trip in the '72 VW bus. In 1987, Jenny purchased her first motorcycle. She was instantly hooked and began searching the area for the best day trips around San Francisco. The seed for MAD Maps was planted. Now the company offers the best kept secrets of North American back roads with their Get Outta Town, US Regional Touring, and Rally Run series.
