Nowhere in Ireland has such a diversity of walks as Killarney, walks that kings and queens, writers and international celebrities, have come to make in the beautiful landscape for which Killarney is renowned. Heretofore there has been no guidebook for these walks, and this new book rectifies this deficiency.

About the Author Jim Ryan is a civil engineer living in Cork. A regular walker in Ireland and abroad, he has a particular interest in geology and claims his spiritual home is on the Reeks of Kerry. His previous books include, Aconcagua - The Highest Trek in the World (2004), and Carrauntoohil Macgillycuddy's Reeks (2006
