In the mid-1800s, a quaint fishing village, called Nauvoo at the time, was the largest fishery on the New Jersey seacoast. By the end of the 19th century, this fishing village had grown into the flourishing seaside resort of Sea Bright. Luxurious hotels like the Normandie-by-the-Sea, Sea Bright Inn, and the Octagon House were built, transforming the town into a haven for the wealthy, who built elegant cottages along its coast. The famous Pannaci Hotel and Restaurant became known as the Delmonico of Sea Bright. Today Sea Bright continues to draw vacationers and residents alike with its glistening water and beautiful sandy beaches.

About the Author Holly Bianchi is a poet, freelance writer, author, and member of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. The rare historic photographs in Sea Bright chronicle the history of this seaside town that became a jewel by the sea.
