Seabrook's Antique Shop Guide: Covering over 2200 shops in Southeastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware
Seabrook's is: The comprehensive annual directory to over 2200 antique shops in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware including: 216 pages of antique shops, antiquarian booksellers, auction houses, flea markets and thrift shops. Organized by state, county and town for ease of use. Portable enough for your glove compartment. Covers areas from the shore points and small rural areas to the cities and suburbs. The perfect companion when traveling throughout the tri-state area. Designed to eliminate the frustration of "driving around looking for antique shops", assist in planning antique trips and increase the actual time spent antiques. The fast, easy method of locating antiques, art, accessories, architectural elements and tomorrow's heirlooms. Essential to anyone who collects, designs, refinishes, refurnishes, renovates or reupholsters. An effective reference for individuals who are downsizing or moving and need to sell all or partial contents of their homes. In the process of exploring each area you may find yourself picking through thrift shops, experiencing the thrill of the auction bidding process, quietly viewing antiques in a gallery setting or drawing inspiration from tastefully decorated boutique-style shops. All are part of the excitement of collecting and searching and you will find precisely this mix of shop styles as you investigate each area.
