They changed the pictures and they are wonderful as always! But now the overall calendar is nowhere near the quality it used to be. The pages are longer instead of wider, thinner and more paper-like instead of thicker cardboard, and it doesn't have high gloss photos anymore. I used to buy several every year, one for myself and others for gifts. They made absolute wonderful gifts but now I'm reconsidering for next year. Almost embarrassed to give them to my friends and family, unless the quality returns. I may still purchase one for myself next year and see if the quality is improved before purchasing more. I'm even willing to pay a little more for a quality product but it wasn't worth the savings for 2012. Sorry SeaWorld. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful.
