The book is so shallow, just a few pretty pictures won't make places the "Greatest trips". For a person who have been to a lot of the places that are listed in the book, I can tell you that this book is for someone and written by someone who doesn't understand the local culture and true beauty of foreign places.

From Travel + Leisure, the worlds leading travel magazine, comes the newest edition of 100 Greatest Trips, an invaluable compendium of the years most distinctive destinations.
