Fred Schwartz : TRAVELING THROUGH LIFE before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised TRAVELING THROUGH LIFE:

TRAVELING THROUGH LIFE is a poetic and photographic journey as experienced by a daughter, a wife, a mother—ultimately a woman's personal perspective on this universal path called life. Travel with Leona through beginnings—the birth of a baby, the hatching of a robin's egg, the first-time witnessing the breath-taking vistas of natural deep valleys and endless skylines. Experience the vibrant sights and dulcet sounds of a woman hearing-disabled since childhood through words that hum, sing, whisper, holler, forget and remember a life lived well. Reflect with Leona as she travels . . . through the seasons . . . the hills of South Dakota. . . on the road in Arkansas in the Old City Jerusalem...playing in the sun...or just sitting on a rock. The senses delight in the rhythm, the feelings, the spirit -all embodied in verse that shares the itinerant life of a sentient woman who savors the moment forever in words and photographs. The sweet scent of spring, a forbidden kiss, a morning stroll, a song of sorrow- the pungent power of words wrought from the fragrant heart of every woman. Relive her life, this life, your life, the upheaval and affirmation, the first time and the death dance. Take time now to say good-bye, for a new beginning awaits us all. Be bold. Step forward. And begin your own journey, TRAVELING THROUGH LIFE.

About the Author Leona Schwartz, a retiree, worked two professional careers as a medical technician and recreational therapist for many years, raising two sons along the way. A practicing vegetarian and self-taught nutritionist, her major interests include family and friends, a healthy lifestyle, travel, ecology and nature -all reflected in her poetry. A lifelong poet, TRAVELING THROUGH LIFE is Leona's 'retirement project.' Motivated by the reading and sharing of her fellow scribes in her monthly poetry workshop, Leona combined her love of prose with husband Fred's passion for photography in a first-time collaboration between the long-time married couple. The result is a compelling travelogue of words and pictures illustrating the many cherished moments of a multi-faceted woman who took time to enjoy the journey. Leona and Fred Schwartz currently reside in Lower Merion, Pennsylvania where they continue to collaborate on life.
