Trevor Summons : Trevor's Travels: in Southern California before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Trevor's Travels: in Southern California:

The great world traveler and writer Trevor Summons has decided to settle down in Southern California and conduct all his subsequent literary expeditions here. Summons is now the region's tour guide of choice. He leads readers not only on visits to the well-known attractions, but also on journeys of discovery to hidden locations that are even more fascinating. This collection of some of his best articles must be considered the new travel bible that belongs in the car, motorcycle, backpack, suitcase and bookshelf of anyone who wishes to explore the Golden State's glittery half. -John Weeks, Features Editor L.A.N.G. (Retd!) Trevor's Travels (in Southern California) is the result of 15 years of a weekly column published each Sunday in the San Bernardino Sun and other newspapers in the Los Angeles Newspaper Group (L.A.N.G.) Each piece is an account of a location recommended for a day visit. S. California has a great deal to offer both resident and visitor. From museums and art galleries to the many beautiful outdoor locations, the area has it all and you don't have to worry too much about the weather! The 150 places herein range from the eerily named but interesting Museum of Death to the awe-inspiring Getty, and from the Living Desert in Palm Springs to the relaxing beach of Marina Del Rey.

About the Author Trevor Summons was born in England. He immigrated to the United States in 1982 to pursue a business career based in Southern California. After retiring, he moved to the mountains of San Bernardino and began to write professionally. His first four books, Requital, McConnells, Transposition and A Charmed Life are all available from iUniverse, Barnes and Noble and other book stores. This is his fifth book.
