0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great trip guide if you can find itBy C. FoxTheses are the best trip guides around. It's just enough info, no huge books to shlep around. Very easy to use with great maps. We've used them in many cities in us and Europe and find it's the only guidebook we need. If only they hadn't stopped printing them. This one is from 1997 so I'm sure the info isn't all up to date anymore.

Ramble with the natives at a 30 acre garden deep in Georgetown, visit the little known reception rooms where the Secretary of State entertains, or head up to the top of a clocktower for a view that rivals the Washington Monument. It's all in the Washington, D.C. TripBuilder! Informative sight descriptions unearth little-known anecdotes, unique facts, and practical advice (like when to go, how to get there and what it will cost). Color coding tells you whether a sight is a best museum, hidden treasure, historic landmark, superior shopping spot, or a great place to take the kids. DETAILED FOLD-OUT MAP shows exactly where each color-coded sight is located. Special Suggestions to make your trip even more memorable. Lightweight, easy to carry and a great value at just $5.95.
