By Warren B. in C. B. I have been a friend of Uncle John for years and now I am having all my friends meet him. Uncle John has been publishing his Bathroom Readers for 20 years. When you know you are going to be waiting for 15 minutes or hours take Uncle John along and you will be entertained even if you are not an avid reader. You can open your reader to any page and enjoy. I just gave a family in Omaha a copy of the Minnesota Reader, they are all from Minnesota and still have family there so they are enjoying their reader. Looking for a Christmas gift or any occasion, an Uncle John Reader is sure to please and entertain. Be sure you buy THE original Uncle John, he has some imitators out there now. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By mratatat Full of fun tidbits and fully met our expectations.

"My favorite sandwich is peanut butter, baloney, cheddar cheese, lettuce, and mayonnaise on toasted bread with catsup on the side." Hubert H. Humphrey (former Senator from Minnesota) Humphreys sandwich doesn't include any of the top 5 food gifts from Minnesota: wild rice, potato lefse, lutefisk, maple sugar and syrup, or bison jerky but it provides a glimpse into Minnesotans' unique character. And favorite son Garrison Keillor isn't the only Minnesotan with a sense of humor; St. Urho Day, created as a joke by a couple of Minnesotan Finns, is today recognized in all 50 states. And whereas all states have official flowers and birds, Minnesota has a state beverage (milk) and muffin (blueberry). Sounds like a good place for breakfast. Its people are just one interesting facet of a state where travelers can find such fascinating curiosities as the SPAM Museum or the Museum of Questionable Medical Devices. And Uncle John cannot help but be enamored of a state with a town competing with cities in Illinois and New York to lay claim to the world's only two-story outhouse.
