Brian David Bruns : Unsinkable Mister Brown: Cruise Confidential, Book 3 (Volume 3) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Unsinkable Mister Brown: Cruise Confidential, Book 3 (Volume 3):

Only someone who has worked on the inside can really tell the story, and Bruns has the background, academic credentials, and first-hand experience to tell it. I really think that if you buy the set for your shipboard reading, you will come home with an enhanced experience. UNSINKABLE MISTER BROWN has the best writing of the 3 "Cruise" books BDB has so far produced. Even so, since Bruns has written chronologically of his foodservice period, his art auction period, and now his Romania/Bianca time, I do strongly recommend you begin the series with CRUISE CONFIDENTIAL as this is a roman-flueve composition, and you need to have the background from the first two books in order to appreciate the events in this third book. (Rumor is that there will be a 4th book in this series.) In UNSINKABLE Bruns breaks away from challenges of working on a cruise ship and the shipboard art auction business in order to focus on his long, difficult pursuit of the Romanian Bianca, who also works on the Carnival ships. Was he successful? I don't write spoilers. In response to another reviewer, there IS in fact a picture of Bianca (and many other people from Bruns cruise days) on his internet site. The pictures are a very nice enhancement to the reading experience of his books. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Enjoyable and Highly Recommend By Kindle Customer This is book 3 in Mr. Bruns' Cruise Confidential Series. In this book we finally get to know Biana, the woman he joined Carnival Cruise for, as the only American Food Server, worked ridiculously hard and long hours for, trained to be a Ship Auctioneer, traveled around the world for, putting his life outside "cruise life" on hold, all in hopes to be with the love of his life. Biana is from Romania, who works on cruise ships to help support her family. In this book, Mr. Bruns does not focus so much on ship life and the auction training as he did in the first two books. He focuses more on his relationship with Biana, how it began, what they have endured in their attempts to stay together. Mr. Bruns is an excellent writer and storyteller. We follow his adventures in Romania, Greece, Egypt, beaches, famous tourist sites and the characters he meets and interacts with are interesting, funny and truly caring that things between him and Bianca really do work out. I also learned so much about the areas he traveled, which is why he is such a good travel writer, as well as a novelist. I recommend all 3 of these books highly. They are very interesting and truly enjoyable. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Best-written of the series so far By J. L. A true international love affair from best-selling and award-winning author Brian David Bruns. A three-continent romance was not what Brian expected when he first visited Transylvania, but Bianca lured him into an entire life making a playground of all seven seas. The Red Sea, the Black Sea, the Caribbean, the Aegean... a head-spinning list of rendezvous. Luxury liners were their vehicle, with ship life like no other. The awesome power of the big ships to cross oceans of cultures kept bringing them together... and pulling them apart. But it was a secret past that threatened to sink them. Vastly entertaining and expansive, hilarious and true, feel-good Mr. Brown shows that the stuff of legendary romance lies in us all, if we but have the courage to reach for it.

About the Author Brian David Bruns is a best-selling and award-winning author whose books have been lauded by the Travel Channel, Today Show, and USA Today, among other prestigious publications. Brian's Cruise Confidential book series by the only American in the history of Carnival Cruise Lines to endure a full contract in the ships restaurant earned his being featured in ABC's 20/20 special edition, the aptly-named Cruise Ship Confidential, seen by 7.61 million viewers. When not writing Brian strives for adventure. He has traveled to 50 nations, biked the 500 miles across his native state of Iowa, bagged a bunch of Americas most prominent peaks, and run some decidedly off-the-wall marathons. His latest passion is for the mayhem of obstacle-filled mud runs. By far the best, however, is hiking with his wife of five years, Aurelia. They currently live in Las Vegas.
