Bill McRae, Judy Jewell : Utah (Moon Handbooks) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Utah (Moon Handbooks):

I also have two other Utah guide books and the Moon provided the most useful information that included area attractions as well as where to stay and where to eat. There was easily twice as much detailed information on places I planned to visit. The other guide books were heavily slanted toward lodging and dining establishments and for such information I usually rely on tripadvisor and yelp website reviews from many people instead of a single person writing a guide book for an area.This Moon book is also much better organized and the maps though not great are better than average.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Utah dreaminBy CustomerI chose this book over several similar ones because it offered information on state parks and under-the-radar camp sites. In general, it seems to focus more on the less-visited attractions than Fodor's, for example. I'm using this book to set up my next RV adventure.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Number 1 book for Utah travelers.By nancysidWe just got back from a two week vacation, and this was our best source for travel in Utah. We also took the AAA book, and some maps, but this book fleshes out the locales the best. We did disagree with some of the food recommendations, but for the most part, this Moon guidebook is by far the best!

Seasoned travel writers W. C. McRae and Judy Jewell know the best ways to experience all that the Beehive State has to offer. The authors include great trip strategies that utilize Utah's amazing outdoor attractions and unique history, such as Standing High: The Best Vistas and The Old West Tour. Packed with information on dining, transportation, and accommodations, Moon Utah has lots of options for a range of travel budgets. Every Moon guidebook includes recommendations for must-see sights and many regional, area, and city-centered maps. Including expert advice on the state's best brewpubs, first-rate ski and snowboard resorts, and amazing National Parks, Moon Utah gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience. With expert writers, first-rate strategic advice, and an essential dose of humor, Moon Handbooks are the cure for the common trip.

About the AuthorBill is the coauthor of several travel guides, including Moon Utah and Moon Montana (both with Judy Jewell). He has also edited books for National Geographic and Mobil Guides and has written for websites like GORP.com and Expedia.com. In his spare time he earns money by writing polemics for a high-tech PR company. He makes his home in Portland, OR. Judy Jewell graduated from Reed College and worked at Portland's renowned Powell's Books. Judy worked there, as a book buyer and manager, for 14 years then decided to write travel books. Judy is the author of several guidebooks, including Moon Utah and Moon Montana (also with Bill McRae). When she is not writing about the outdoors and travel, she is the lead technical writer at Camp Dusty Technical Services. She lives with her husband and dog in Portland, OR.
