Get the kids and take a car tripBy RK Auto GroupWhere else but in the wonderful state of Virginia would you find five - not one, but five - "kissing bridges" - available for the curious traveler to visit? Jump in your car, forget about the busy highways. Instead, head to the red hued Sinking Creek Bridge in Giles County or the 150-year old Humpback Bridge in Covington, where you can eat your picnic lunch in the nearby park. Judy Colbert covers these fascinating sites and much more in the 8th edition of Virginia Off the Beaten Path. Discover where to stop for interesting historical and cultural forays, where to eat and where to spend the night if you want to extend your road trip for another day. This book provides info about sites and amenities in each geographical area of Virginia, so that you can plan the ideal road trip - or trips. You and your spouse can tour wineries across the state or you could introduce your young children to our country's history in a way that they'll never forget. We highly recommend Judy Colbert's Virginia Off the Beaten Path.

Virginia is famous for its historical and natural treasures, but did you know that it's also home to the longest minigolf hole in the world? Or that one of its towns, appropriately named 'Saltville,' was the Salt Capital of the Confederacy? Discover these and other quirky attractions in this offbeat guide to the Old Dominion.

From the Back Cover Tired of the same old tourist traps? Take the road less traveled and uncover the hidden attractions, unique finds, and unusual locales other guidebooks just don't offer. Off the Beaten Path features the things you'd want to see if only you knew about them! From the best in local dining to quirky cultural tidbits, you'll say over and over again: "I didn't know that!" Discover a different side of the Old Dominion! Relax in Spa Min-Rale with products inspired by Virginia's own minerals and indigenous botanicals; visit the Trapezium House, a home built with no parallel walls or right angles; or go on a soapbox derby run down Mt. Trashmore. So if you've "been there, done that" one too many times, get off the main road and venture Off the Beaten Path.
