Alton E. Loveless, Delois Loveless : Visit the World With Us before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Visit the World With Us:

For nine years "Thursday Thoughts by Dr. Alton Loveless" has been a regular part of our Editorial page. In that time the world traveler and man of God has taken our readers along on hundreds of globe-trekking adventures by way of his concise and informative writing style. The columns have been a mix of the sights, sounds and smells of the places visited, combined fluently with details and research of their historic and global significance. This collection of columns is a way any reader can get his or her passport stamped by living out extensive world travels through the ears, eyes, feet and heart of Dr. Loveless. I encourage you to let him be your tour guide ... it's a trip you won't regret.

Respectfully, Doug Smith, managing editor Farmington Press
