One of Commonwealth Editions' perennials: Bonnie McGrath's photos of Walden matched with quotations from Thoreau's Walden.

From the Inside Flap Beautiful color images of this New England landmark accompanied by text from Thoreau's "Walden" -- all in a new series design. About the Author A native of New England, Bonnie McGrath first visited Walden Pond as a child and today walks its shores many times a year. A mother of two and grandmother of three, Bonnie earned her BFA from the Massachusetts College of Art. A graphic designer who has long experience in many aspects of book publishing, she exhibits her photos and watercolors throughout eastern New England. Her images have also appeared in many regional and national publications. Bonnie's photos of Walden are also available as notecards and prints, posters, postcards, and bookmarks. She can be contacted for information at www.lightdancespirit.com.
